

Title: I AM UNIQUE FROM PEPPY PALS

Goal:

To spot similarities and differences and to see that the differences render us UNIQUE. Differences should be associated with something positive, there is only ONE of ME. Understanding similarities and differences is a part of Emotional Intelligence (EQ)

Intro:

At this station you'll draw a picture of yourself and one of your best friends.

Resources:

Pens/Pencils/Crayons for coloring
Handout

Instructions:

Use paper and pencil and draw a picture of yourself and your best friend.
Ask: What things make you and your friend similar/different?
Draw something that you like about a friend, that is quite different from you.

Discussion:

What does it mean to be unique?
What is unique about you?
Is it good/bad to be unique?
What would it be like if everybody looked the same, acted the same, had the same name?
