

Title: WHAT IS BLUE TELLING YOU?

Goal:

Understanding that colors have meaning, they can convey emotion, or create a reaction and can inspire people to take action. Colors tell a story.

Intro:

Colors are a form of non-verbal communication that can speak volumes. Blue means Trust, Loyalty, Patience, Harmony, Dignity, Peace, Calm, Quietness, Fear, Duty, Unfriendliness.

carrie e. wolfe

Heart and Soul and Art

Resources:

Blue colored pencils/markers/crayons
Scissors, Glue/Tape
Handout
Handout Blue Words

Instructions:

Pick up a What's Blue Telling you handout from the table, and cut out the Eye Brows, Eyes, Nose, and mouth. Choose a "Blue Word."
Color the face and features you with different shades of blue and glue the features on to display how someone might look when feeling that way.

Discussion:

Review the Blue" words share with the others what "Blue" word you chose.
How does the color blue make you feel?
What type of situations might these different feelings show up? Why?
What is your favorite color? How does that color make you feel?

POP-UP FESTIVAL